Ice Breakers

1. What is your favorite fourth of July memory?
2. What is one thing you are praying for in the second half of 2020?

Message: “You Got a Friend in Me”

“Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down, that the mountains would tremble before you!”

-Isaiah 64:1 NIV

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.”

-Galatians 5:22-23 NIV

Questions

1. What stood out to you from Sunday's message? Did God speak something specific to you during the message?
2. Many believers misunderstand or write off the Holy Spirit all together, but Jesus promises to give us His Spirit wherever we go, at all times. Describe your experience, understanding, or relationship with the Holy Spirit.
3. The evidence of the Holy Spirit's movement in your life is less about a feeling and more about fruit. The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self control. (Galatians 5:22-23) Which fruit do you see most in your life and which do you see least?
4. In times when the spirit of fear and anger run rampant, we must lean on the Spirit of power. What's one fear you can call out and pray over today?
5. What do you need prayer for this week? Take some time to pray for one another.
